Fresno Retiree Crisis Comes To Trial

FURA, the Fresno Unified Retirees' Association, has been in a brutal battle with the Fresno Unified School District since 2004 when the district unilaterally changed the retirees' lifetime health benefits by imposing a monthly fee. The Fresno retirees decided to fight, and it hasn't been easy and certainly hasn't been pretty. The case finally comes to trial on December 18 after the Fresno district has apparently exhausted its bag of tricks, which included trying to disqualify FURA's attorney, Bob Bezemek, from the case and bringing trivial motions to the court (all of which were dismissed) that were meant to stall the proceedings, possibly bankrupt FURA, and break the will of the Fresno retirees. To this point FURA has spent $300,000 on the case (all of it raised by member voluntary contributions and donations from sympathetic organizations), and the Fresno District has spent $5,000,000, according to FURA president Carole Sarkisian-Bonard.

I spoke with Carole about the case, and after five years she remains optimistic that FURA will prevail despite the frustrations and expenses. She knows that in Bezemek (also lawyer for the PFT) FURA has probably the best attorney in the state – if not the nation – in representing school retirees. The judge in the case has also indicated that FURA's evidence is strong.

The Fresno case has obvious implications for Peralta retirees. If FURA wins it will set a precedent that Peralta and other districts will challenge at their peril. The message: Don't you dare mess with our lifetime benefits. If FURA loses.....well, let's join in Carole's optimism for now. (If you are

Berkeley Honors Rafael Gonzalez

The City of Berkeley has declared October 13 Rafael Jesus Gonzalez Day. Rafael taught in both the English and Mexican-Latin American Studies Departments at Laney College for over 30 years. He is being recognized for his lifetime of writing and art, cultural and political activism, and community service.

There will be a formal ceremony in his honor at the City Council meeting on October 13. The formal resolution includes recognition of Rafael’s contributions as a teacher, artist and political activist. It cites his recognition by the National Council of Teachers of English, his leadership in organizing, and conducted the rituals for the annual Días de Muertos Community Celebration at the Oakland Museum of California, and his anti-war activism.

Jay Quesada Joins Pro Board

With the resignation of Odell Johnson from the PRO Board of Directors for personal reasons, the board approved the appointment of Jay Quesada to the board to serve the rest of the term. First, I'd like to thank Odell for his service. He was an effective Membership Committee Chair and always brought his good humor and enthusiasm to PRO meetings and events. We will miss him on the board.

Though I welcome Jay to her official seat on the PRO Board, she is hardly new to our meetings and activities. She is one half of PRO's dynamic duo, whose other member is Linda Japzon, also a board member. The two have done a great job co-chairing the Social Committee for three years always bringing their high energy and puckish sense of humor to any situation.

Jay worked on the classified staff at College of Alameda for 25 years. She's the mother of seven sons, grandmother to eight grandchildren, and great grandmother to eight more. She's been active in organizations such as the NAACP, La Raza and the PTA. A lover of jazz, she comes from a renowned musical family. (Pete Escovedo is her brother, Sheila E her niece.) She calls herself "a very social and fun-loving person." We on the PRO Board can verify that!

Richard Bidleman Takes Over Database Task

Maintaining the database for an organization is one of those thankless, behind the scenes, activities that requires both good organizational skills and technical prowess. When PRO was established we were fortunate to have Don and Juanita Peterson set up and then maintain our database. After Juanita retired from the Board, Ann Whitehead took over. Now Richard Bidleman is assuming this important responsibility. Richard was a CIS and Business in-

FURA Status Update

By Bruce Jacobs

Over thirty years ago, Fresno Unified School District's unions negotiated retiree health benefits for the employees of the District. The District agreed to provide retirees with health insurance benefits at no cost after the age of 57 1/2. In 2005 the District broke its promise, and began charging its 3500 retirees hundreds of thousands of dollars each year in premiums. FURA hired Bob Bezemek to sue the District for the restoration of retirees' rights. Below is an update on the status of the legal situation.

On August 26 of this year, the Superior Court granted FURA's Motion for Class Certification, rejecting the District's opposition. In its order the court approved the definition of the class, appointed class representatives, and ordered FURA and the District to confer on how best to notify class members of the ruling and other matters. This means that the FURA lawsuit is now a class action lawsuit so that each individual retiree does not have to separately sue the District.

On August 31, FURA's attorney filed a Motion for Writ of Mandamus, asking the Court to order the restoration of promised, lifetime benefits without premiums or fees. The evidence submitted with the Motion included statements from former superintendents, former district and union negotiators, recruiters, employees who conducted orientations or processed retirements, and others. The motion makes reference to District statements during a PERB Fact-Finding Process to the effect that Fresno's compensation included the promise of fully paid health benefits for retired employees, their spouses and dependents for life. The trial is set for December 18.

Ferragallo Art Selected by Jury

In the last issue of The Peralta Retiree we reported on Roger Ferragallo's cutting edge digital art. As an update, three of Roger's digital prints have been selected by a jury to appear in the prestigious 11th international digital print exhibition Digital '09: Mysteries in Science to be held at the New York Hall of Science from October 3, 2009 – January 31, 2010. This annual project is organized by Art & Science Collaborations, Inc. (ASCI). You can view the three works as well as the rest of the exhibition online at <http://www.asci.org/index2.php?artikel=1052>.

Are you doing something that would interest your fellow retirees? Publishing a book? Having an art exhibit? Winning an award? Is there a public event where you will be honored that you want to publicize? You can let PRO know by submitting information by email to webmaster@peraltaretirees.org or by US mail to the PRO PO Box (PRO, PO Box 1951, El Cerrito CA 94530). If you were planning to bring books or magazines to the Annual Membership Meeting this November, you can try to personally contact the libraries and make arrangements to deliver the books yourself.
